

WFLD Prize Conditions

1- Young Researcher Award (YRA)

- The candidate must be WFLD member in good standing with current registration for selection and award delivery (regular payment of WFLD membership for year 2026)
- The candidate must be the first, second, last author or corresponding author of the scientific publication selected for the competition
- Age <36 years
- User of laser technology for at least 3 years
- Have authored and co-authored of scientific papers on laser topics

2- Laser Innovations Award (LIA) : for groups of research (maximum 4 members).

The group representative must submit the application for the "Laser Innovations Award" attaching:

- A. Word document (PDF) containing the first best research carried out in the last five years selected for the competition (short presentation: introduction, materials and methods, results, discussion, conclusions)
- B. B) Word document (PDF) summarizing the scientific activity of the research group, indicating:
 - name (if any) of the research group
 - names and surnames of the members of the research group with affiliation
 - any publications or scientific dissemination of the research (conferences, oral presentations, webinars, posters, interviews)
 - the list of publications carried out by the research group in the last five years.
 - The curriculum vitae et studiorum, indicating their scientific and clinical activity in the field of lasers (included lectures, oral presentations, posters, interview, lessons)
 - Awards received by members of the research group related to the selected research and separately other awards received in the last 5 years for research activity
 - Certificate of regular WFLD membership (for each member of the research groups) for the year of establishment and award delivery (for this edition 2026)